

VÖLKEL

THREADING SOLUTIONS

Hello,

the year is coming to an end, but things at VÖLKEL are still moving at full speed. Our Dakar team is preparing for the next big challenge, there's fresh technical know-how about fluteless taps, and at the end we have an important organizational update to help you plan ahead.

Even though 2025 is entering the final stretch, our workload remains strong. Projects are progressing steadily, the teams are busy, and the next tasks are already lined up. This update gives you a compact look at what's happening right now.

Dakar 26: Team VÖLKEL heads towards Saudi Arabia

Our Dakar crew has moved into the next phase. The vehicles travelled to Spain for official technical scrutineering by the race organization. This step is mandatory before they continue to Barcelona, where the vehicles are loaded onto the ship bound for Saudi Arabia.

In our blog post, we give you an exclusive behind-the-scenes look at the technical inspection and explain why this step is so crucial. The countdown to Dakar 2026 is on.

Fluteless taps: chipless, clean, reliable

In many applications, fluteless taps are the more robust and cost-effective alternative to traditional cutting taps. No chips, less tool breakage, high process reliability – and with the right setup, even demanding materials can be formed cleanly and consistently.

In our latest article, we show where fluteless taps really shine, what matters during application, and why this tool has become a standard solution for many customers.
